

Yale MACMILLAN CENTER

Council on Latin American & Iberian Studies

---

Old and New Challenges to Mexican Democracy

A CONFERENCE AT YALE UNIVERSITY

---

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4
8:15 AM - 6:30 PM
Luce Hall, Room 203
34 Hillhouse Avenue

This conference is made possible with the support of the Edward J. and
Dorothy Clarke Kempf Memorial Fund

PANEL DISCUSSIONS:

9am - 10:30 am

Violence and the Drug War

Omar Garcia-Ponce, George Washington University: "Violence and Retribution in Mexico's Drug War"

Guillermo Trejo, Notre Dame University: "The Political Drivers of Criminal Violence in Mexico: Causes, Consequences, and Solutions"

10:45 am - 12:15 pm

Resistance to Criminal Violence: Institutions and Legacies

Sandra Ley, CIDE: "Criminal Violence and Indigenous Resistance: Why Ethnic Autonomy Institutions Deter Drug Violence in Mexico"

Livia Schubiger, Duke University: "Legacies of Resistance: Mobilization Against Organized Crime in Mexico"

1:30 pm - 3 pm

Organization of Crime and Policing

Rodrigo Canales, Yale University: "Building effective, resilient, and trusted police organizations in Mexico"

Alberto Diaz-Cayeros, Stanford University: "Incentives for Police Professionalization in Mexico"

3:15 pm - 5:30 pm

Social Movements, Dissent, and Collective Action

Maria Inclán, CIDE: "What moves Students to the Streets? Ritual versus Reactive Demonstrations in Mexico City"

Mariano Sanchez, CIDE: "Social Dissent, Coercive Capacity, and Redistribution: Evidence from Authoritarian Mexico"

Emily Sellars, Yale University, "Emigration, Collective Action, and Agrarian Reform in Mexico"